2019 BIMBACHE BLANCO

Canary Islands, Spain

0% Other, 0% Pedro Ximénez, 0% Gual, 0%
Baboso Blanco, 0% Listán Blanco, 0%
Diego

There are notes of fennel and herbs, beeswax and even some apricots. It's a round and lush white with volume and pungent acidity, a strange combination that leaves a very dry sensation on the palate. The wines from El Hierro are really wild. This first year, they harvested quite late, and the 2019s are less ripe.
