ABOUT THE PRODUCER

One of the newest estates in Ribera del Duero, Dominio del Águila, was founded by Jorge Monzón and Isabel Rodero in 2010. Located in the village of La Aguilera, Jorge farms 30 hectares of vines organically with ongoing experiments with biodynamics. Like his neighbors, he relies primarily on the Tempranillo grape for his wines. Beyond that, all other similarities end.

At Dominio del Águila there is no Cabernet Sauvignon, no Merlot and certainly no Malbec or Petit Verdot, instead Jorge relies on Bobal, Garnacha, Tempranillo Gris and Albillo to add complexity to his wines. The vineyards are all over fifty years in age, and located on sandy and rocky clay soils. Jorge has acquired these plots over the last decade while working at Bodegas Arzuaga-Navarro which he departed in 2013 to work full time at his own estate. Before 2010 he sold his grapes to several high-profile neighbors. Proving the old adage that, "it takes a lot of beer to make good wine," Jorge also operates a microbrewery on the estate brewing beer entirely from local ingredients.

Jorge comes from a family with a long tradition of growing grapes and making wines. He has studied in Bordeaux and Burgundy and has worked at both Domaine Romanée-Conti at Vega Sicilia before joining Arzuaga. His studies and travels taught him several important things: the importance of organic farming, an appreciation of old-vines, a desire for elegance and transparency and all the skills necessary to combine these ideas to make remarkable wines.

Jorge and his wife Isabel, who is an architect, have renovated an ancient cellar in the village of La Aguilera dating to the 15th century. They installed concrete tanks for fermentation and placed a barrel room in the coldest part of the subterranean cellar. Natural yeast co-fermentations are the first step in the process with pigeage done by foot. After primary fermentation the wines are placed in French oak for malo and aging. With such cold temperatures in the barrel room the evolution of the finished wines is gradual allowing for the development of greater complexity.

WINE NOTES

Peñas Aladas Clarete 2020 is the latest development from Dominio del Águila, the exciting project by Jorge Monzón and Isabel Rodero in Ribera del Duero. After the great recognition of their red Peñas Aladas Gran Reserva, in the 2020 vintage they produced a claret at the highest level, born from the same place at more than 870 meters of altitude, in a very cool valley surrounded by pines, holm oaks and junipers.

They selected 3 plots of certified organic farming, where all the vines are more than 100 years old, some of the oldest in the town of La Aguilera (Burgos). Tempranillo predominates by approximately 50%, along with other mixed white and red varieties (albillo mayor, bruñal, garnacha, bobal, cariñena...) that were vinified together, as was traditionally done. The aging lasted for 30 months in oak cubes, deep in their caves.

An exceptional claret with the subtlety, elegance and great aging capacity that characterize all Dominio del Águila wines.
