ABOUT THE PRODUCER

Anne-Marie and Jean-Marc Vincent inherited most of their vines, principally located in and around the village of Santenay in the southern Côte de Beaune, from Jean-Marc's grandfather, André Bardollet-Bravard. They produce three premier cru reds and two premier cru whites from Santenay, in addition to a red and a white Auxey-Duresses. The Vincent wines are characterized by rich, layered fruit, intense expression of individual terroir, and solid structure.

Their Auxey-Duresses Blanc "Les Hautés," which thankfully happens to be their highest production wine (that is, more than two barrels produced), is a gem and a role model for other producers of the appellation. This is the wine that first attracted Kermit to the domaine. "I had rarely had an Auxey-Duresses that excited my taste buds," he said, "I knew I was on to something." And indeed it reaches the heights of many a white Burgundy with a greater pedigree. It also evolves well in one's cellar. The Vincents' wine operation is a family affair and A-M and J-M split their time between the vineyards, cellars and their young children. Their miniscule production always sells out quickly to a small group of devoted clients. All of their wines are a testament to the importance of vigneron talent in a given appellation. While a great vigneron can make over-achievers from any appellation, a great appellation will never be great in the hands of mediocrity.

William Kelley of the Wine Advocate said "This small but exceptional five-hectare Santenay domaine is one of the Côte de Beaune's finest and deserves to be much better known."

WINE NOTES

All grapes are harvested by hand, with several passes through the vineyard to pick grapes at the optimal point of maturity. Sorting happens in the vineyard with each grape being inspected by the harvesters. The goal of the vinification and aging is to let the wine develop at a very slow pace. Vinification without sulfur, small amount of sulfur added at bottling.

Vines 7-50 years old. 30 to 60% of grapes are de-stemmed (depending on parcel and vintage). Grapes undergo a slow, temperature controlled maceration for 20 days. Wine is aged in 25% new oak barrels. Wines are never racked. Wines are aged for a minimum of 15 months.

"The talented Jean-Marc Vincent brings us a wine that epitomizes both the essence of Santenay and the essential qualities of great red Burgundy. First, Santenay: earthy, structured, bold, it is true to its school. What makes it transcend its appellation to represent greater Burgundy so well is its impeccable balance and touch. Truly great Burgundian Pinot "pops" with a bright, effusive, explosive character that coats the palate effortlessly without being overbearing. Experiencing this as adequately as this bottle delivers is a triumph." - Kermit Lynch Wine Merchant
